THE SCOTTIE

TO THE SENIORS, CLASS OF 1955

May this volume of the Scottie serve as a chronicle of the happiest experiences of your last year spent at Scottsdale Joint High School. Myriad are those experiences: open books and questioning minds, helpful teachers, ringing bells and shuffling feet, opening and closing doors, strains of music of the orchestra playing, entertaining class plays and assemblies, competitive sports events ---these are but a few. Certainly you will return time and time again to the pages of this book for happy reminiscences of unforgettable school experiences and associations.

DEDICATION

MRS. McCANN

With deep appreciation and respect, we, the Class of 1955, dedicate this volume of the Scottie to Mrs. Lilian McCann who is retiring from our faculty this year.

Mrs. McCann was born near Dawson in Fayette County. She began her teaching career in 1910 in German Township which is her Alma Mater.

Graduated with an A. B. degree from the University of Pittsburgh, she has taken post-graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania State University, and Columbia University.

In 1944, she resigned from her teaching position to serve as assistant to Dean of Women at Dickinson College. She became a member of our faculty in 1945 as Latin and English teacher.

As to her plans for the future, she says, "Institutional work interests me. If the opportunity comes, I shall in all probability accept it." Whatever activities she engages in, we wish her happiness and good fortune.

Graduation from high school for some of you will be the foundation upon which to build more specialized training for professional service, but for many it will be the end of formal schooling. Whatever direction your adult life may take, we hope that the lessons learned in public school will be of great value to you.

If it were possible for me to say something that would make every one of you stop and think seriously, I would impress upon you the fact that you will get out of life in proportion to what you are willing to work for. This is no new idea. It has been expressed in many ways throughout the centuries of history, but it has to be learned by every person for himself. Some learn it more easily than others, and some fight against it until they are forced to accede to it.

This principle is the foundation of success from whatever angle you would be successful. It is the key which will open the door of opportunity when everything else fails.

Work is the world's best medicine. Not only is it true that work never hurt anyone, but it is more justly true that work is good for people. Work is the builder of muscle and sinew. It is the foundation of confidence and self-respect. It is the eliminator of boredom and ennui.

Life is an opportunity. You can make of it just what you will. And if you would make of yours a good life, I can wish for you no greater blessing than work - hard, tiring work - but exhilarating and glorious in its accomplishment.

With all good wishes,

Quinton M. Puff

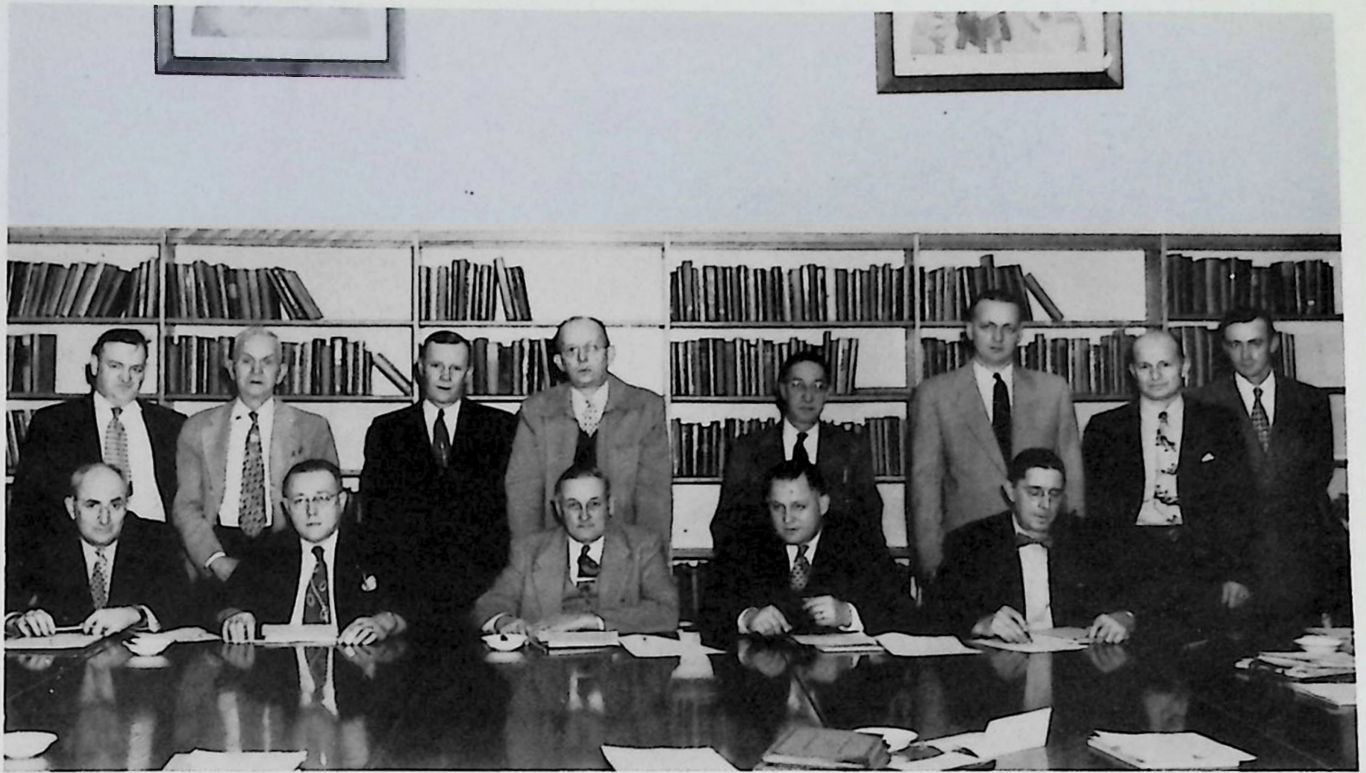

MESSAGE OF PRINCIPAL RONCO TO THE CLASS OF 1955

Young men and women of the Class of 1955, we who have exchanged experiences with you throughout the educative period of your youth wish you Godspeed. May the goals you have set for yourselves be within your horizon, and in seeking these goals, may you constantly keep before you the challenging reminder to be your best selves always.

Sincerest wishes for your well-being,

Ray E. Ronco

SENIORS

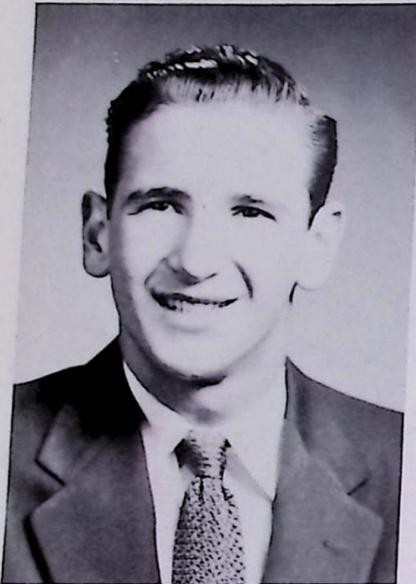

LAURA ANDREWS--Laura was one of our serious-minded classmates. She took a real interest in her schoolwork. With her personality Laura will be very successful in her nursing career.

FRANK BANASICK--Ghost. This tall lad had one main interest, basketball. After graduation, West Virginia will be his next stop. He will enjoy life on the University Campus.

GERALDINE BANASICK--Gerry. Only one lass in our class like Gerry and she was a busy one. Leading cheers, making posters, working after school, she took it all in her stride and loved it.

BARBARA BART--Barb, a very attractive and pleasant personality, takes a serious view of life. Her helpfulness will win her top rating as a secretary.

ETHEL BAUER--School had little interest for her. Although quiet in class, she could talk a streak when with her friends. In a bubble gum contest, we'd bet on her.

SENIORS

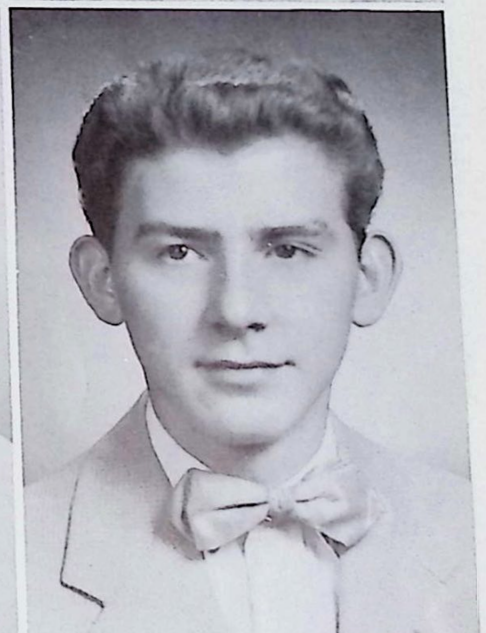

RANAE BLACKWELL--Ranae has the cutest dimples in school and a complexion to match. Add a happy disposition and you'll know why this petite blonde curlyhead was a popular classmate.

DOLORES BOREK--A shy little miss with a sweet little smile who was seen, but seldom heard. Just couldn't wait for the fourth period class to roll around.

FRANK BROWN--A good looking lad with expressive brown eyes. Frank thought the time spent in school was a waste of good time. His hobby was counting days until graduation.

GWEN BRYAN--A tiny vivacious brunette, Gwen was the reason for many a wasted study hall. And out of school how she could jitterbug! She's a go-getter. We wish her success.

JANE CAMPBELL--The future plans of this tall slender lass with the beautiful brown eyes and bubbling personality include four years of college. Her wit and charm will rate her a campus favorite.

SENIORS

SYLVIA CHLEBOSKI--Sylvia was a cheerful good-natured member of our class. The thing she disliked most was homework. She was a booster of dear old Owensdale, her hometown.

DEAN CLARK--Dean was a likeable happy-go-lucky chap with a sense of humor a yard wide. He waited all winter for summer so he could leave for Deep Creek, Maryland.

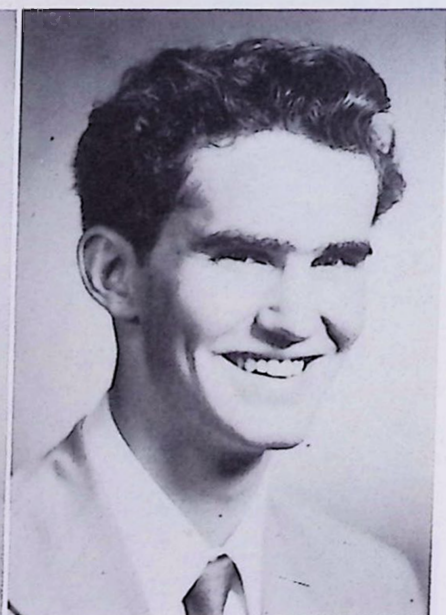

MARY ELLEN CLAYBROOK--Good-natured, attractive, and talented, Mary Ellen excels in many activities, including her studies. Her success is a foregone conclusion.

ROBERT CURTIS--Curt. Trim and well-groomed, this classmate kept his mind on his work and seemingly was allergic to girls. Played left end on the team.

RICHARD DAVIS--This classmate is hard to describe in twenty-five words. Though a smart boy, school's a bore to him. He's popular and it was dull in school when Dick was absent.

"Dear Arms"*

SENIORS

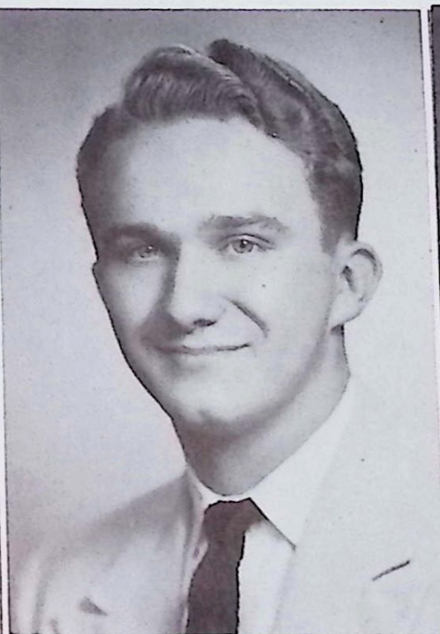

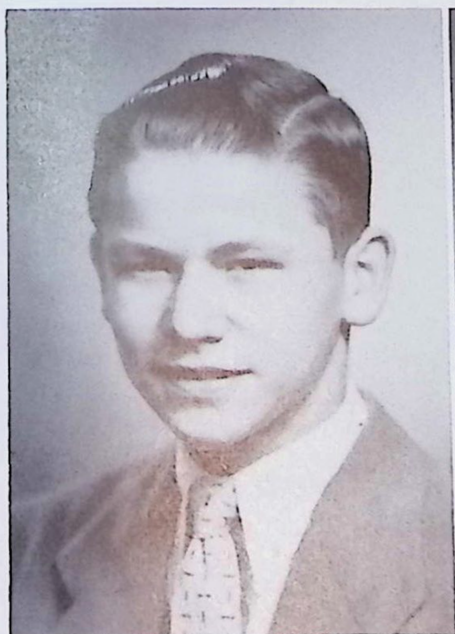

ROBERT DEMMA--Pizzon. At the piano or the type-writer Bob made each stroke count. He livened up shorthand class for the girls. An accommodating and good-natured chap.

LUCY DEROSA--There was never a dull moment with energetic Lucy around. Her bubble gum control left us all speechless with admiration. Had a long walk to school. No plans as yet.

FRANCES DUNLEVY--Dumpy. Her dark mysterious looks certainly made a hit with the boys which perhaps explains why school was a lesser interest. A friend in need is a friend indeed and that describes Dumpy.

LARRY DUQUETTE--Beetle was by far the most talkative member in the class and the most romantic, though he wouldn't admit it. He could really play his saxophone. He will talk himself into a good job.

LEONARD DZIURZYNSKI--A package of mischief, he hated study and could always think up a way to get out of it. The teachers will miss him.

SENIORS

BEVERLY EICHER--Bev. A valuable member of the Scottie band, she was tops on the trumpet. When sports were being discussed Bev knew the score. A future in music is a safe guess for Bev.

CHARLES EICHER--Chuck. Our popular class president. Class routines were a bit dull for him, but he livened up school assemblies with his Jerry Lewis stunts. 1955's gift to T. V.'s Comedy Hour.

THELMA FIRMSTONE--Giggles and Thelma were inseparable. Pretty and carefree, she found life just a bowl of cherries. With such a girl there could be only one future. Lucky man!

MARY JO FLYNN--Learning to drive a car gave Marsey-and many others-thrills galore. As a nurse her Irish wit and good nature will be a tonic to her patients.

MICHAEL FURLO--Killer. "Oh, that Killer!" His tricks kept his classmates howling. He could really sing those Polish songs, too. Never a serious moment for him.

SENIORS

CAROLYN GEEHRING--Carrie was one of the inseparable threesome from Owensdale. She was quiet and didn't let many people know what she was planning for the future. Homemaker?

CHARLES GRIMM--Charlie. This likeable young fellow seemed to have energy for sports alone, but his smile never failed to bring the girls running. He kept them guessing.

SHIRLEY HALL--Shirley was the first girl in the Class of '55 to become engaged. No wonder she had a keen interest in home economics.

BARBARA HARDING--Barb is friendly, good-natured, and attractive. She is another of '55's blondes. Barb plans to go into nurses' training in Greensburg. A certain boy has her heart.

JUDY HEISE--Work and play in equal parts kept Judy happy. A five-year band member, her clarinet performance will be missed next year. A pleasant personality.

SENIORS

ROBERT HELKOWSKY--Bob. The other member of the Martin-Lewis entertainment team, The National Guard is one of his main interests. He played guard for two years on our grid squad.

JANET HIXSON--The country air gave Janet her rosy cheeks and bounce. She enjoyed romping through the halls with the schoolgang at noon. Those three!

RUTH HODGE--Ruthie, a classmate we point to with pride, was one of the four named to the Honor Society in her junior year. She had friends by the dozens.

EDWIN HONSAKER--Ed. All sports seemed to have equal attraction for this tall, handsome lad. School was the least of Ed's worries. A man of few words, but isn't that the type that can fool you.

JANE HOUGH--Janie's poise and perfect grooming added "oomph" to whatever group she joined. Her blonde hair was the envy of her classmates. She was dependable, too.

SENIORS

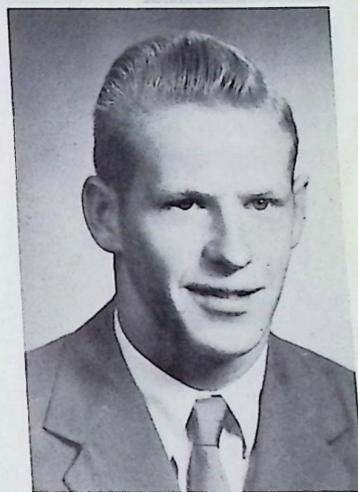

MARGIE HOWARD--Margie. A good student, her favorite pastime was reading. Although she always appreciated a good joke. She ended her literature classes.

W. HUNKER--One of the outstanding athletes of class. A modest lad, he was well-behaved in class and kept his mind on his work. An appendectomy kept him off the field for part of his last football season.

DONALD HYATT--Hikey. This bashful lad had no time for girls. Strictly an outdoor man, he enjoyed camping, fishing, and hunting. He spent a summer in Connecticut harvesting tobacco.

ELIZABETH JANE JARKO--Betty. Here's one of our hardworking girls. Her job at Jimmy's Curb Service kept her busy. Betty kept us guessing about her private life.

WALTER KAPER--Toots. Our tall, blonde, lean man hails from Everson. His little gray coupe made good time and many miles. He was one of the BIG FOUR!

SENIORS

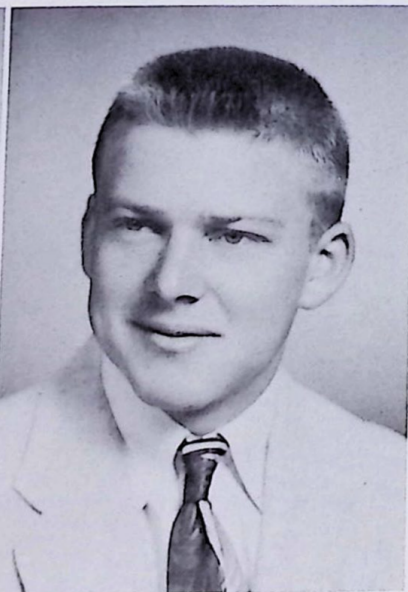

DONALD KESLAR--Kess. This good-natured lad was popular with all his classmates. Chuck and Hikey and he had much in common including their dislike of school. Wants to join the navy.

ARTHUR KILIANY--Art. This boy doesn't waste time. School and his job at the Acme kept him busy. Quiet and good-natured. You'd go a long way to find a nicer boy than Art.

GEORGE KILIANY--Klank. Basketball was a favorite sport of this tall lad. He could be seen trudging to National Guard meetings on Monday nights. It's the Air Force for Klank as soon as school's out.

SANDRA KING--Sandy. Pretty and sweet--and, of course popular. Sandy was never at a loss for words--or boyfriends. She is a classmate we'll remember and be proud of.

EDWARD KNIPPLE--Knip. A handsome lad and the captain of our football team. He really made those boys hustle! He was a fast talker and could get himself and his Pinetree gang out of a scrape in no time flat.

SENIORS

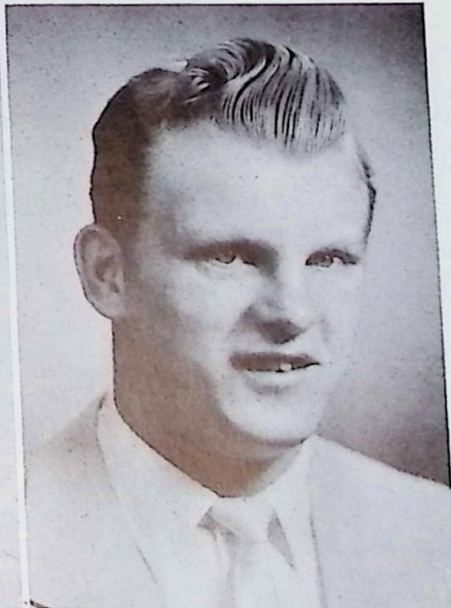

CHESTER KONIECZNY--The first day of hunting season Chester's name was always on the absentee list. School wasn't for him. In this age of specialization, his was loafing.

EDWARD KOSTELNOCK--Ed was our goodlooking Scottie clarinetist with four years of band work to his credit. His unfailing courtesy won him many friends.

VICTOR KULZAK--Vic, our tall male blonde, always kept the girls guessing about his hair. Tell us, Vic, did you get it from a bottle, or is it natural?

EDWARD LANTZ--To see Buck sauntering into class you'd never suspect he was greased lightning on the basketball court. That giggle of his was indescribable.

ARDITH LEASURE--Ardith came to us from East Huntington in her sophomore year to take the commercial course. It took her a little while to get acquainted, but she proved herself a worthy member of the Class of '55. Thanks, East Huntington.

SENIORS

GRACE LEONARD--Gracie will be long remembered for her pretty long dark hair. As soon as school was out she was off to work on the tobacco farms in Connecticut. A mere poster became a work of art when Gracie made it.

MARLENE LOPES--This little blonde miss is very attractive to the opposite sex. Marlene could easily be a stand-in for Marilyn Monroe. Glamor with a capital G describes Marlene.

MAXINE LUTE--This serious-minded member of our class is ambitious. The medical profession attracts her. Many years of hard work await her, if she doesn't change her mind.

SARA MAHOKEY--Sara really was the character of the class. Her one purpose in life, was to have a good time. This didn't leave much time for assignments.

PHILIP MALONE--Phil didn't seem to have a worry in the world. He was always late. Phil really deserves the title of "The Slowest Man of 1955."

SENIORS

MARY ANN MANARCZYK--Mert was always eager to get any school project underway. An aggressive intelligent little classmate, she had a mind of her own, a happy future to her!

DALE McCUSKER--Depsy was one of our rough and ready football men. In school he usually had his assignments finished but he was in for all the fun, too. Never missed a joke, that boy!

AUDREY McFADDEN--A classmate we like because she was sincere and helpful. She was a conscientious student and will be successful in whatever she decides to do.

LETTY MERRITT--This bit of atomic energy worked hard to make good grades and never missed the honor roll. But don't get the idea that she had no other interests.

JUDY MOURAL--We'll never forget how lovely Judy looked as the Gridiron Queen attendant. She had many friends because she was thoughtful and cooperative. A little classmate we like very much.

SENIORS

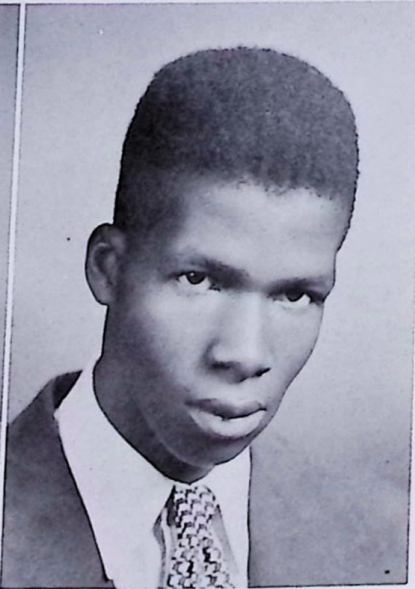

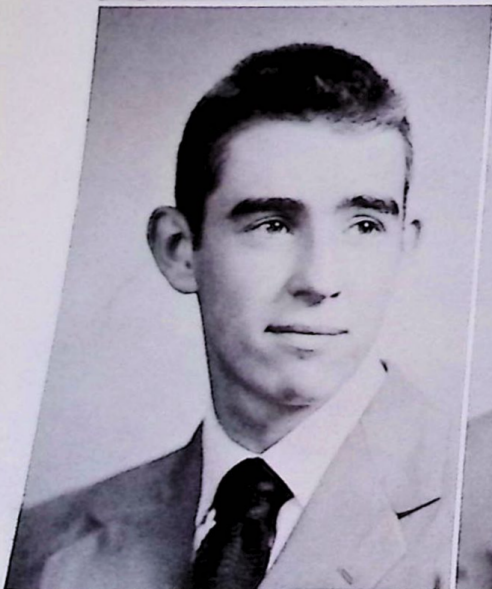

GEORGE MURRAY--George's curly hair was the envy of the girls. He is definitely the out-door type. His study halls were always put to good use.

NANCY MYERS--Nancy is one of the Pinetree gang and has a very good sense of humor, but oh how she can blush.

ROBERT PALMER--Rege. Words fail us when we try to describe Rege. It took little effort on his part to have us all in stitches. A likeable and good-looking lad.

GERALD PETERSON--Peter rode to school on his sharp red and white motorcycle. Graduation day will be the happiest day of his life for this tall good-natured red-head.

JAMES PIFER--Junior added heights to our school. Everson just couldn't do without their favorite paper carrier. If we could only get him to talk more.

SENIORS

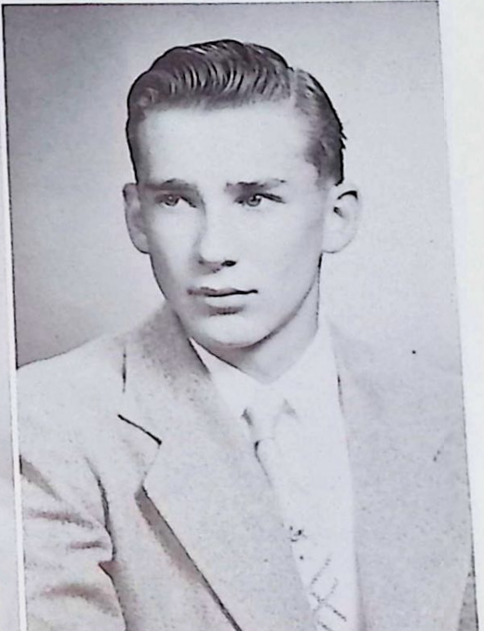

PATRICIA PINSKEY--Pat. The mystery girl of her class. Her interests were many and school was a lesser one. She will start nurse's training after graduation.

JANE PONKO--Our choice for Miss 1955 of S.J.H.S. Gridiron Queen, Editor-in-chief of the Scottie Revue, and Honor Society officer, Jane will surely be successful in whatever vocation she chooses.

JOHN POPOCHOCK--Poppy was away above us. He never let us in on his plans. One thing is sure; we know he'll make the best of pilots.

DONNA PORTER--This energetic young miss proved to us that E.H.H.S. students are all right. Sincere and hardworking, she's a student any class would be proud to claim.

FAY REAGAN--Fay was our attractive, black-haired Irish lass. She was the kind of quiet, intelligent person everyone likes immediately. With Fay's cooperation many a project was successfully completed.

SENIORS

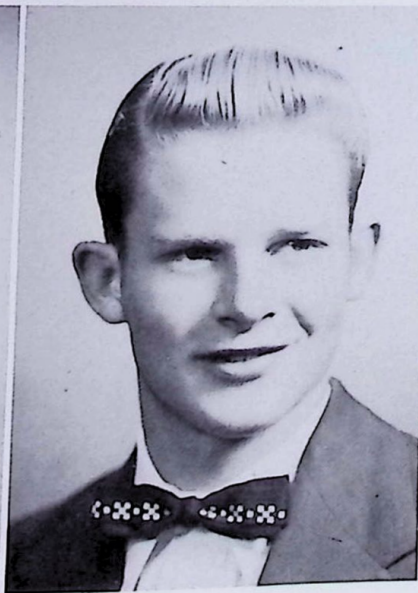

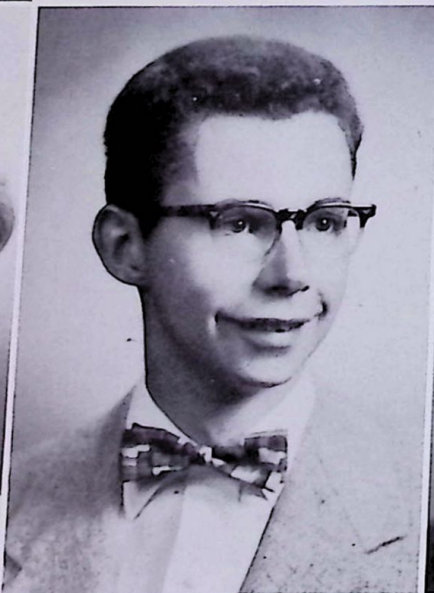

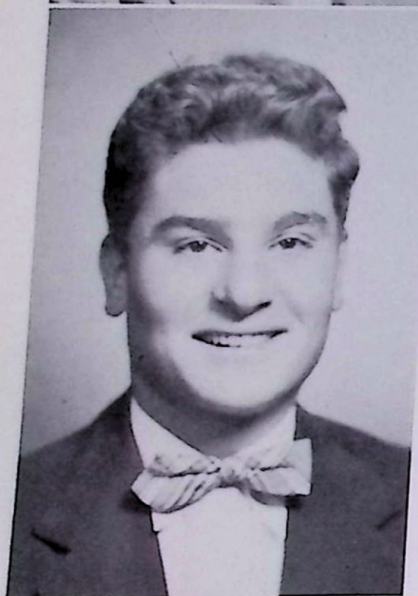

MILFRED RIDENOUR--Miff is the friend-of-all type. He likes fun, but he has his serious moments, too. Miff has many talents, but we remember his acting ability.

RICHARD RIZZA--Red's a typical Huck Finn. He enjoyed outdoor life and hated to be shut up in school. He's a slow moving boy, and only food could speed him up.

EVELYN ROCHECK--Quiet business-like Evie kept her mind on her work and made high grades in her commercial subjects. She will rate a good secretarial position.

EUGENE SCHMITTLE--Gene. When the band marched out on the field there was drum major Gene, keeping all fifty of them in tow. Gene is well-described as ambitious, hard working, and popular.

JAMES SCHUSTER--Jim's exploits constantly dominated our conversations. He let no grass grow under his feet, nor under his speedy truck. Jim's grin all but said, "Watch me this time."

SENIORS

DOLORES SHANDORF--Jean's a staunch defender of her Everson rights. She likes excitement and plenty of it. She's a speed demon when she gets behind the wheel.

DARLENE SHERBONDY--Cheerleader and G. A. A. president, peppy Dar was not only sports-minded. Although Honor Society member and Scottie write-up chairman, she still had her fun. Her personality couldn't be matched.

FLORENCE SIECINSKI--Flo just wouldn't take anything seriously. The library rocked every fourth period, when she was in charge. She's a mad motorcycle maid.

RITA SIKON--A mischievous twinkle, and an impish grin-----that was Rita. She refused to take school seriously. Her major interest was NOT assignments or teachers' lectures.

ALICIA SKONIECZNY--Alicia saw a rainbow shining through the darkest clouds. To delight her heart all you do is let her drive. She and Eileen are the best of friends.

SENIORS

SYLVIA SKOVIRA--Sylvia believes a joke can remedy any situation. Although she won't admit it, she's a brain! When Nurse Sylvia's on duty, we'll guarantee a rapid recovery.

ARTHUR SMITH--Yukki. Hunter, fisherman, and all-round woodsman, this class member had greater interests than school. However, he made himself heard in P.O.D. arguments.

ELVA SMITH--Everyone received a smile from pleasant, courteous Elva. Judging from the precious wallet bulging with pictures, she had many dear friends in Scottsdale and elsewhere.

ROSEMARY STANEK--Rosie radiated good cheer and friendliness. She loyally attended all athletic events and made her cheers heard. She was the Scottie Revue's Louella Parsons.

JANET STEINDEL--Janet, our sophisticated lady, was both artistic and helpful. Hence she was in constant demand for posters. As an air hostess she will make friends for T.W.A.

SENIORS

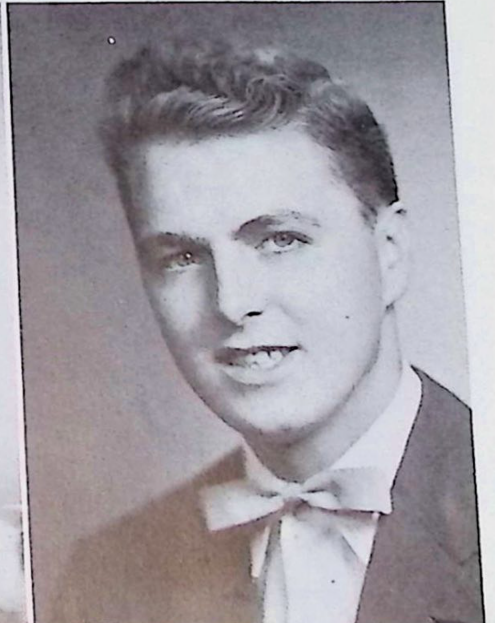

EILEEN STEMPIAK--Clothes were Eileen's chief interest whether they were from magazines or her originals. A career as dress designer for this quiet but pleasant classmate?

THERESA STEPANIC--A charming miss who has both beauty and brains. Theresa couldn't decide which was more interesting--Scottdale or East Huntington. She will be a faultless secretary.

WILLIAM STERRETT--Bill was kept busy with school and his job at the gas station. He had to use that time at noon to keep in touch with his friends. A long time Choral Club member.

LOIS STONER--A charming miss with a personality to match, that's our Loi. One of our more enthusiastic sports fans, she will be remembered as an attendant of the Gridiron Queen.

ROBERT STOUT--Bob rated A plus in personal appearance. No one except Mr. Seese could surpass him. He headed the list of his likes with: first, Choral Club; and second, dismissal.

SENIORS

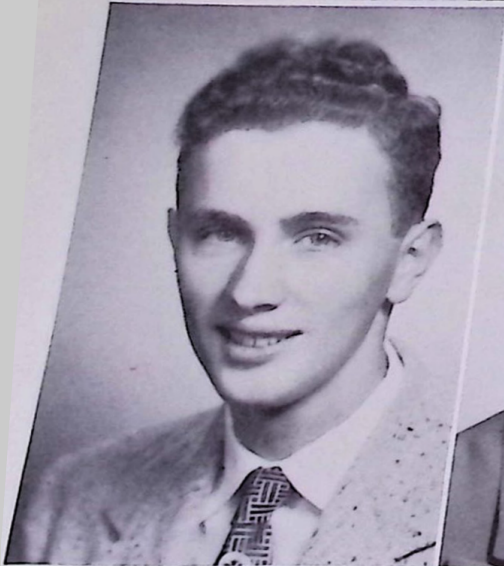

PRISCILLA STRABEL--Per. Studious and dependable Priscilla was elected to the Honor Society in her junior year and was a veteran band and orchestra member. Represented S. J. H. S. at State Orchestra three years.

JUNE STULL--June made good use of her time in school. She was ambitious and hard working and never caused her teachers a moment's worry. Her school records speaks for itself.

GERALD SWINK--Good-natured and easy going Jerry rarely had a serious moment. Girls drove him crazy. He liked tooting the baritone in the band. A loveable kid with his blue eyes and curly hair.

JAMES TISCHKE--Freddy. A car isn't fast enough for this finelooking classmate. He had to have an airplane. He knows what he wants and where he's going. We warn the Air Force: Here Comes Tischke!

SALLY TYSKA--A snappy majorette who really made those routines worth watching. Weekly dances were a must for her. We predict a happy future for this cheerful miss.

SENIORS

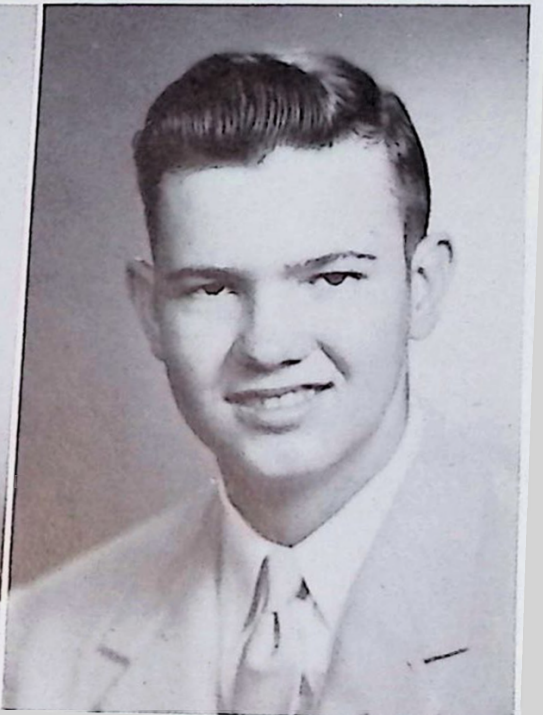

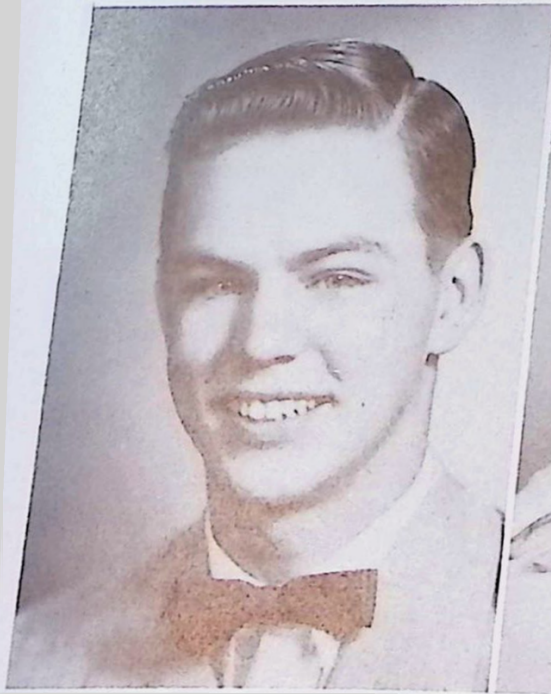

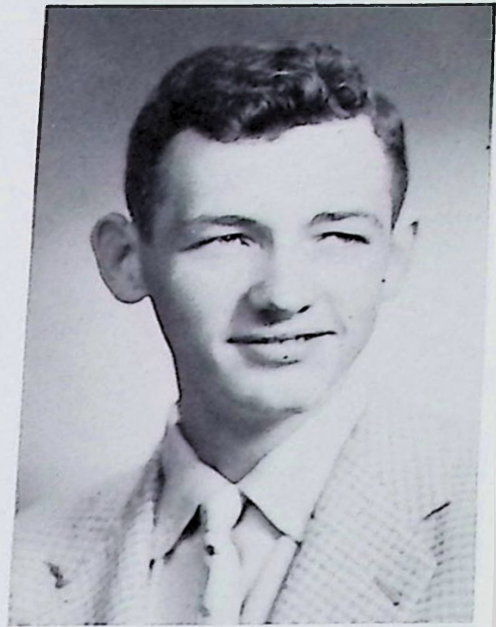

LEWIS VOUGH--Louie was the "Sharpey" of the class. School he found dull. His energy was used to tease the girls. His dimples and curly hair they like.

LORRAINE WATSON--Lorraine, a quiet, attractive lass, came to us from Connellsville High School in her junior year. She soon proved an asset to our class. We are proud to have her on our class roll.

WAYNE WATSON--It's hard to say whether teachers gave Punky a hard time or vice versa. However, he finally made the grade. Graduation will be a happy day for him.

MARGIE WEAVER--This girl was dynamite. She had a joke for every occasion. Honor Society membership in her senior year proved she had her serious moments, too.

SENIORS

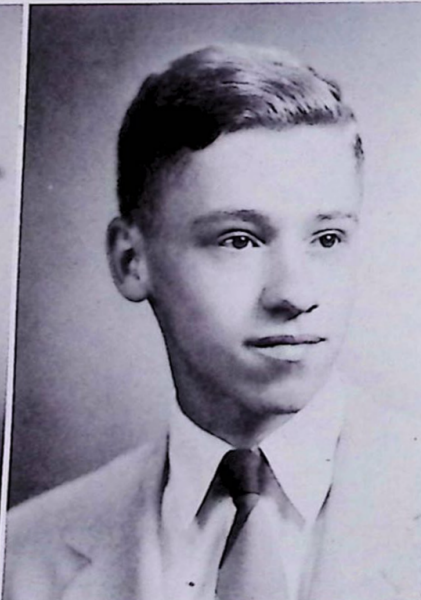

GEORGE WICKER--One popular varsity quarterback had both brawn and brains. As National Guardsman, he looked forward to summer encampments. He really made the female hearts flutter.

GEORGE ZEKAN--Zeek. One of the tallest boys in the class, a mere six feet and two inches. George was a brain. We couldn't stump this expert.

ELIZABETH ZERILLA--Liz. This peppy good-humored little girl bounced around school in pursuit of many activities. Cheerleader, Honor Society member, and a regular visitor to the library. Topflight commercial student.

MERLIN ZOOK--Although he participated in few school activities, this classmate was a busy man with his many hobbies and his work after school. A dependable co-operative student.

MERVIN ZOOK--S.J.H.S.'s 1955 Man of the Year. Honor Society officer, Student Council president, Scottie Revue business manager, Mervin had too many activities to mention. College, of course, is next.

This was a busy year for these 117 juniors. They soon discovered after school started in September that as upper classmen they had additional responsibilities. A magazine subscription drive to raise money for the yearbook ended with $1,138.89 in the class treasury. Class rings had to be selected, and then came tryouts for the junior class play.

Juniors are well-represented in school activities. Twelve juniors were on the football varsity, and seven were out for basketball. Band, Choral Club, F. H. A. all have a high junior quota. A member of this class was the first to receive the National Honor Society Trophy for scholarship.

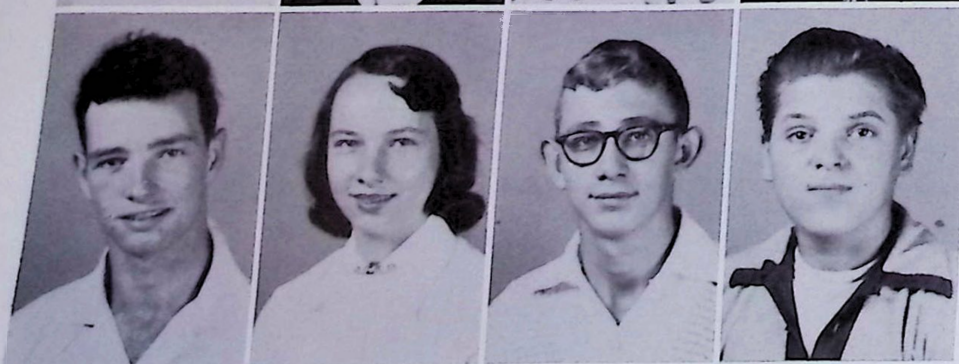

There is only one more year for these students, and they are looking forward to September, 1955 when they will find themselves in senior home-rooms ready to start that last and best year of high school.

This is one class that is never at a loss for talent for assemblies and parties. They have many who like to sing: Tom and Kenny Collins, Patricia Tracey, Virginia Stickley, Myrna Honsaker, Mary Ann Zozula and Jeanette Battle, just to mention a few. Add one tap dancer, Judy Amend.

Yes, this Class of 1957 is a very active group.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is one of the most active and important school organizations. Membership of the Council is limited to thirty students including class presidents and vice presidents, homeroom presidents, and permanent members elected each year.

The Student Council represents the students in the government of the school. Here they are given an opportunity to share in decisions relating to activities of the entire school, and discuss rules and regulations with their advisor and principal.

Mr. Wilson, senior history teacher and guidance counselor, was the sponsor of Student Council this year.

STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVITIES CALENDAR

Student Council had a very busy and successful year with Mr. Wilson as sponsor. Following is a calendar of the year's activities:

October 15	Council business meeting at Assembly previewed the year's program.
November	Sale of Scottie shirts.
December 12	Decorated for Christmas.
December 13-17	Sponsored morning chapel programs which were broadcast to home-rooms through the public address system.
December 28	Sponsored Alumni-Varsity basketball game.
January 10	Purchased a television set for Senior High.
January 14
to	Pre-Lenten noontime dances on Friday.
February 18
April	Published a students' handbook.

This 1954-55 Student Council group has set a record of service which will be a challenge to all future Councils.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Scottsdale Joint Chapter of the National Honor Society is an organization of which our school is very proud, and to belong to it is considered quite an honor.

The purpose of the Society is to give recognition to students outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

The membership is limited to ten percent of the graduating class, three percent of whom are elected in their junior year.

Two-year Honor Society members are Ruth Hodge, Jane Ponko, Priscilla Strabel, and Mervin Zook. Members named in their senior year included Mary Jo Flynn, Letty Merritt, Darlene Sherbondy, Marjorie Weaver, and Elizabeth Zerilla. An additional two percent will be chosen at the close of the first semester.

F. H. A.

Care packages, Thanksgiving baskets, freshly dressed dolls for Salvation Army distribution, and draperies for the school dining room were projects of The Scottdale Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America this year. These busy little future homemakers numbered thirty-five with twelve new members added at the beginning of the year. With all junior officers headed by Anton Wagner, president, they worked hard all year.

Meetings were devoted to discussion of homemaking problems and every girl in the group realized the purpose of the organization as stated, "learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow."

Miss Davis is the faculty sponsor.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club is the newest student activity organized in Scottdale Joint High School. Getting off to a late start in November this activity won strong support with a membership of forty students.

Movies explaining camera construction and technique of picture-taking made club meetings interesting. Special reports were also given. A snapshot contest announced in December closed January 31, and trophies were awarded to the three best 5 x 7 dull finish prints.

This club sponsored by Mr. Seese and with Eugene Schmittle as its president has had a good year and promises to be one of the school's most popular activities.

ORCHESTRA

This year the Scottie orchestra had a chance to make public appearances with all members present. Because of the adaptation of the Strand Theatre stage to cinemascope the school plays were given in East Huntingdon's school auditorium which has an orchestra pit large enough for the twenty-member Scottie group.

The orchestra is always well represented at all district, county, and state festivals. G.C. Hazen, director, is especially proud of the string section which is one of the few in Westmoreland County.

There are four seniors in the orchestra: Priscilla Strabel, violin and viola; Letty Merritt, piano; Beverly Eicher, trumpet and cello; and Eugene Schmittle, oboe. These experienced members will be missed when orchestra tunes up next September.

THE SCOTTIE BAND

The Scottie band under the direction of G.C. Hazen had an outstanding season.

The new good-looking snare drums and two Scotch drums added greatly to the volume of sound made by the fifty-member band as they marched smartly down the field led by Drum Major Eugene Schmittle. New blue corduroy jackets added greatly to their appearance, too.

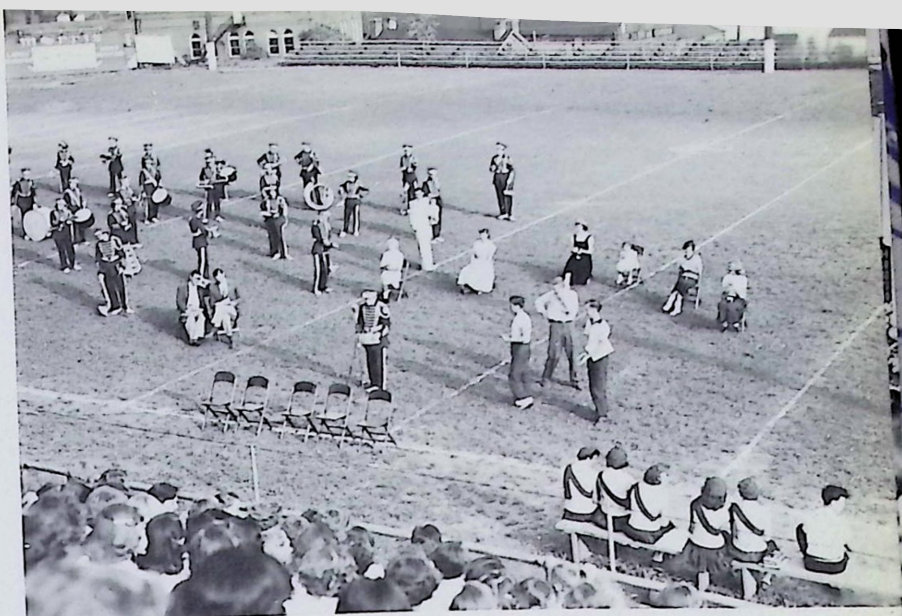

The new precision drills won favor with the spectators as did the other formations used.

OPEN HOUSE

TEARS WERE SHED

When the Scottie band plays "Auld Lang Syne" at the last game of the season, senior members all at once realize how much fun they have had.

Among these seniors are some real veterans: Chuck and Beverly Eicher with a six-year record as trumpeters; Judy Heise, Larry Duquette and Gwen Bryan, five years; Letty Merritt and Ed Kostelnock, four years. Eugene Schmittle also has four years, his last two as drum major.

To these twelve members we say "Auld Lang Syne."

CHORAL CLUB

The highlight of the Choral Club year is the Christmas cantata, and practice for it is started early in the year. "The Light of the World," a Christmas candlelight cantata by Ellen Jane Lorenz, was the selection of the director, Mrs. Alice Martz, this year, and it was presented by the 58-member choral group in the First Baptist Church on Thursday evening, December 14. Priscilla Strabel and Peggy Martz were the accompanists. The beauty and thrill of the cantata was reward enough to the group for the many hours of practice.

Choral Club members represent Scottdale Joint High School at district, county, and state chorus. Practice for these choral events was next on the year's program.

The Club also has good times outside of school. Will they ever forget that picnic under a full harvest moon at Flynn's last October?

THE BRASS ENSEMBLE

CHORAL CLUB

Eighteen seniors represented the Class of 1955 in Choral Club this year. All the officers were selected from this group with Eugene Schmittle, president; James Tischke, vice president; Priscilla Strabel, secretary; and Ranae Blackwell, treasurer.

Three seniors have attended County chorus: Mary Ellen Claybrook in 1954; and Priscilla Strabel and Beverly Eicher in 1955.

An important decision was made this year in the selection of a standardized pin. Designed by Dieges and Clust, it is made of sterling silver with blue and white enamel border bearing the school and club name. It will be presented to all the senior Choral Club members and will remind them of the happy hours spent in choral work in their High School Alma Mater.

SCOTTIE CHEERLEADERS

Throughout the football and basketball season, the peppy cheerleaders in their snappy royal blue jumpers and white turtle neck sweaters did their best to lead the teams to victory.

Four of these were seniors. Geraldine Banasick, with two years of experience, could be counted on to be in there yelling for the Scotties. Elizabeth Zerilla also led cheers for two years. A real tomboy, Liz was at her best when urging the kids to "give out" at pep meetings. Darlene Sherbondy joined the cheerleaders her senior year, and a more loyal Scottie fan you'll never find. Dar never gave up cheering or hoping until the final whistle. Jane Hough was a valuable addition to the group and dreamed up many of those new angles to the old cheers. These were our senior cheerleaders.

Of the remaining four cheerleaders, Mary Ann Zozula, Evelyn Demagall, and Virginia Stickley were sophomores, and Phyllis Shannon was the lone junior in the group.

THE SCOTTIE MAJORETTES

The half time performance of the Scottdale Joint High School band at football games was always highlighted by the antics of the Scottie Kilties. In their colorful Scottie outfits, they furnished entertainment with their various twirling routines, and we are proud of them.

All classes are represented in this seven-girl group. Sally Tyska, a three year majorette, could really strut her stuff and gave a sharp performance on the football field and in parades. Jane Ponko brought honor to this group by being chosen Gridiron Queen of 1954. As a majorette she was tops, too. Seniors Jane and Sally worked hard for three years, training new majorettes. In line with Sally and Jane were two juniors, Alice Weaver and Jane Stella. Three sophomores, Charlotte Fleming, Pat Stanek, and Janice Miller joined the group this year.

Practice makes perfect, and these seven girls put in many hours of hard work perfecting their routines for those brief appearances at half times.

SENIOR DRAMATICS CLUB

The "Powder Puffers," as they called themselves, were divided into three sections, two for the juniors and one for the seniors. Branson Roberts and Harold Davis were presidents of the junior groups and Charles Eicher headed the seniors.

These groups were organized to learn how to produce and stage plays as well as to take part in them. Junior and senior class play casts were chosen from these groups and one-act plays were presented by each group under the direction of student coaches both at club meetings and assemblies.

All who was really interested in dramatics enjoyed this club very much.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The talents of the senior play cast were put to a severe test on the opening night of the class play, "Three Misses and a Myth," but in spite of a few minor setbacks, the production was greeted by overwhelming applause.

Suzie, a teen-age girl with a lively imagination started the ball rolling when she announced that all were to be treated to a visit by Merglethorpe. This was all well and good until the family discovered that Merglethorpe just wasn't; he was a creation of three small girls' imagination. Suzie and her friends really clouded matters up, but because of some unexpected developments Merglethorpe had to take a back seat, and the household got back to normalcy once more.

The excellent coaching of the director, Miss Laughrey, accounted for the fact that every member of the cast gave an outstanding performance.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The junior class play, "Curtain Going Up," a three-act comedy by Gregory Johnston, was presented in East Huntington High School auditorium on the evening of December 16.

This play was about a play; that is the problems of a young Miss Burgess who was coaching her first high school play in the small town of Riverview. An advice-giving janitor, a home economics teacher, an uncooperative class sponsor, and a cast of nerveracking students added up to a rough time for her. But that wasn't all. A stage-struck leading girl and boy, a jealous boyfriend, the unhappy girl who didn't get the lead, and many other characters added to the dilemma of Miss Burgess. Couples break up and make up, but in spite of all previous difficulties the production goes off smoothly.

FOOTBALL

The Scottie football team coached by Melvin Wingrove assisted by Walter Keibler and Vernon Bahanna completed the season with two wins and eight losses. With twenty-nine on the squad, thirteen of whom were seniors, the team though average size displayed tremendous courage and good clean sportsmanship. Loss of valuable players through injuries early in the season compelled the use of green material in key spots. With two wins and two 7-5 losses it can be said that the Scotties put up a good fight in face of bad breaks. The fortunes of football were definitely against them in 1954.

SENIOR SPORTS PERSONALITIES

FRANK BANASICK-Frank, went in for all sports, but basketball tops the list. Playing center and averaging almost 20 points per game, he was named on the All-Section 10 team and received honorable mention on the All-County. On the Scottie eleven he played right end. He is also a three-year letterman in track, in high jump and javelin competition. BOB CURTIS-This was the third year of football for Bob. In end position he was on the Varsity in the Dunbar and Hurst games and played jayvee ball all season. MICHAEL FURLO-Killer, a guard, did not see much action until late midseason but he gave a good account of himself when given a chance to play. He received his first letter in football this year. CHARLES GRIMM-Spizz, 180 lb. fullback, playing his second year on the Varsity was one of our best defensive and offensive players. He could be depended on for extra yardage. A field man he has been in track competition four years and made second-All State on the discus last season. EDWIN HONSAKER-Big Ed, a four-year letterman in football, was co-captain of the Scottie eleven and was named to first string All-County. All-sports Ed is also a three-year letterman in basketball and in track. He set the all-time Scottie record on the court this season when he racked up 32 points against Dunbar. Age limitation kept him out of track competition his senior year but he tied the school record on the pole vault the preceding season. DICK HUNKER-An appendectomy eliminated Dick from football early in the season but he came back strong for basketball, considered one of the Big-Three Scotties with Banasick and Honsaker. He was named to the All-Section 10 team. He is out for his fourth letter in track this spring and will furnish rough competition on high and low hurdles and the 100-yd. dash as he frequently placed first in all three last year.

SENIOR SPORTS PERSONALITIES

EDDIE KNIPPLE-Eddie, was captain of the Scottie gridders. A hardplaying left guard, he is a veteran of three seasons. He kept up the morale of his team in spite of bad breaks and defeats. In track he specialized on the shot putt, the discus and the javelin. VICTOR KULCZAK-Vic, 170-lb. guard, lettered in football for the first time this year. He saw a lot of action and was a hardworking conscientious player. Vic was a dependable teammate. ED LANTZ-Ed, is a four-year letterman in basketball and is out for his fourth letter in track this spring. As guard, he is one of the finest ball handlers and passers in the WPIAL. The pole vault and the mile are his track specialties. PHILIP MALONE-In football Flip was a speedy open-field runner and in basketball, a tremendous outside set shot and a good defensive guard. He is a two year letterman in basketball, and will probably get his fourth letter in track this spring. Phil has cleared eleven feet in the pole vault several times and made All-County last year in this event. He also is in high jump competition. DALE McCUSKER-Dipsy was a valuable player on the Scottie eleven and gave the game all he had. His experience and weight helped make Scottie gains. GEORGE MURRAY-This was the first and last season for Murray who played right guard. Used in jayvee games he also saw action on the Varsity in the Dunbar game. GEORGE WICKER-As no. 66 Elmer had the job of piloting the Scotties and did a fine job. This hardfighting Scottie quarterback was a veteran of four seasons with three years on the Varsity. DEAN CLARK and DON HYATT-These boys had their first track experience this year. Don was on mile and half-mile and Dean worked as broad jump and discus. ROBERT HELKOWSKY-Bob played football his senior year in guard position although handicapped by a broken hand. He was a two year track letterman on the 440 and mile relay.

BASKETBALL

CHAMPIONS OF SECTION X

S.J.H.S. students will have proud memories of the 1954-1955 basketball season for many years to come and none more so than the senior members of the Section X championship team. Coached by Eugene Moffett assisted by Walter Keibler and Scotties ripped through their 22-game schedule with twenty wins to their credit. Crowned champions of Section X after ten consecutive wins, the Scotties traveled to Pittsburgh for W.P.I.A.L. playoffs only to be eliminated by Ford City. They also were defeated by Jeannette in the County playoffs at Greensburg.

TRACK

After winning the Class B title six out of seven years, the Scotties will move into Class A track this year. This should have little or no effect upon the success of the Scotties' regular season, and they will have a chance to try for the Class A title at Pitt stadium. The team looks pretty good with many lettermen returning and a few new prospects. The track squad numbers forty members including eight seniors.

CLASS SONG

(Tune: If I Give My Heart To You)

We are leaving Scottdale High,
 And its memories we hold dear
 We shall think of all the joyful times
 And the fun we've had for years.
 Some may never meet again,
 For the great wide world is ours,
 We will swear that we'll be always true
 To the school to us so dear.

And we will leave all the friends we've made
 Shake their hands, say we're sad,
 And always be close as we are to them today
 But goodbye and fond farewell!
 We must face the world with hope,
 And so let the bond between us all
 Be ever strengthened by the years.

Words by D. Sherbondy

CHESTER GRAY

The Class of 1955 honors the memory of Chester A. Gray, school photographer and friend. For many years his photography has been an outstanding feature of the Scottdale Joint High School yearbook. His good humor and jovial manner won him many friends among both students and teachers. His death brings a sense of loss to us all.
